Easter Next Sunday. The Edict Has Gone Forth: You Must Wear Something New.

Inspiring are the scenes which flit with cinematographic vividness before one's view in that NEW CLOAK ROOM—that big and roomy—bright and cheerful cloak room of ours on the ground floor. PLEASED customers—plenty of them—are what one sees on all sides—at all times.

The shimmering beauty of those Paris-fashioned WAISTS OF SILK, each bearing the magic touch of the thorough modiste.

The elegant yet severe simplicity of those soft colored, man-tailored SUITS, upon each of which true art has left its impress.

Those shapely separate SKIRTS of Crepon, Serge or Sicilian, which are gored to gradually flare outward from the knee line down.

Those jaunty tight and loose front JACKETS, with linings of lively taffeta, the lengths of which come to such a sudden stop, are each and all truly fascinating; yet these are only some of the glimpses of beauty which convincingly drive home the fact that this, the Forced her to Leave.

Harry Deninger was arrested last night by Lieutenant Ed. Michaels, and will appear before Squire Rogers to-day to answer a charge of threatening to kill Nellie White, an Alley C. siren. She alleges that Deninger forced her to leave a house in the alley at the point of a gun, and accompany him to his home, on Twenty-ninth street. Deninger is a young married man, but he and his wife have separated.

Both Were Held.

Squire Greer last night held Ella Hill and Elsie Gray to the grand jury. The Hill woman was charged with snatching a bunch of money from the pocket of J. H. Devine, in the Second ward. Gray's offense was threatening to do injury to the woman if she testified in the case, as he and the Hill woman are very friendly. Last night neither had furnished the required bond.

In Clerk Robertson's Office.

Yesterday in Clerk Robertson's office, the following transfer of real estate was recorded:

Deed made March 20, 1899, by C. Albert Klein, trustee, to Jessie F. Franzheim; consideration $4,600; transfers lots 9, 10, 11, 12 and 14 at Echo Point.

The power of attorney from the Santeel Tobacco Company to Melville D. Post was recorded.

Three deeds of trust were recorded.

The A. O. U. W.'s Headquarters.

The Grand Lodge A. O. U. W. has established new quarters in the Lange building, at Market and Fourteenth streets. The new grand secretary is Frank Gruse, who succeeds Josiah Sinclair, resigned. The local lodges will also move to the Lange building from the Grand opera house block, on April 1. The order met at the latter place for five years.

Escaping gas Burns.

A leak in the Tri-state gas company's gas main, on Peter's run, near Triadelphia, has filled the residents of that section with alarm for months back, and when yesterday a lad named Bob Jones set fire to the leaking gas, the indignant neighbors chased him over many a yard of country, but the boy managed to escape. The gas was still blazing last night and is likely to until the leak is repaired.

THE ladies of the Cathedral Tabernacle will have a display of their work on exhibition at the parlor of the Carroll Club Wednesday afternoon and evening. All are invited to call.

SENSATIONAL

Is the Arrest of J. R. Hissom at the Instance of a

FRIEND OF HIS SON, S. K. HISSOM

Who was Recently Adjudged Insane

After a Prolonged Hearing Before Justice Greer—It is Alleged the Elder Hissom Offered to Bribe a Witness at the Hearing, Miss Edith L. Maser—The Hearing To-day.

An interesting development of the famous Hissom insanity trial was the arrest yesterday of James R. Hissom, of the Island, on a warrant charging him with having offered to bribe a witness in the case against his son, Dr. S. K. Hissom, whom it will be remembered was adjudged insane after a lengthy examination before Squire Greer.

Mr. Hissom was served with the warrant at his home yesterday afternoon by Constable F. C. Darby, and he gave bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance before Squire Dunning, at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The warrant was sworn out by Charles T. Woods, a friend of young Dr. Hissom, who alleges that the senior Hissom offered money to Miss Edith L. Maser, a material witness, to testify falsely in the case of the state vs. S. K. Hissom.

This afternoon's hearing will occasion great interest, and another chapter will be added to some breezy litigation.

AN EXCELLENT SHOWING

Made in the Year Just Ended by the Pollock Oil Company.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pollock Oil and Gas Company was held last evening. The report of the operations of the company for the past year was very gratifying. The well just brought in, and noticed in the Intelligencer, is the largest ever drilled in the Waverly field. The well is so large that the company has not yet been able to get it under control.

The following directors were elected: Ralph Kline, Andrew Hare, J. W. Goodman, Charles P. Wood and Frank P. Hare. The directors organized by electing Frank P. Hare, president, and Simon Kline, secretary.

A Military Association.

A number of boys between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one years are organizing a military association, according to a notice left at the Intelligencer office last night by several of them. No one was conspicuous in the "American Boy" association. A meeting of boys is called for to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the police court room. A preliminary organization under the title of "The Wheeling Guards," has been effected, with the following officers:

Sergeant-at-arms—Samuel Gillespy. Secretary—Edward Schaub.

Vice President—Edward Neuhardt.

The call for the meeting concludes, "We want eleven more drummers, twelve fifers and two hundred privates."

Husband and Wife Fined.

As David Marshall was donning his attire in his home, in the Sixth ward, yesterday, preparatory to a jump for Detroit, Mich., Constables "Dom" Morris and James Creighton by some skillful maneuvering, laid hands on him, and bore him off in triumph to Squire Haberland's office, where he was assessed $5 and costs for assaulting his wife, and placed under a peace bond. His wife, Mrs. Mary Marshall, who was the complainant, was later fined $1 and costs for using profane language at the instance of her sister, Mrs. Charles McKinney. Marshall couldn't pay his fine, and went to jail. He made some sensational allegations concerning his wife's conduct with other men.

Photographs for Easter.

What would be a more appropriate and valued Easter souvenir than one's portrait fresh from the studio of a photographer whose work is synonymous with artistic posing, retention of the likeness, first class finish and general excellence?

Nothing.

And where is there a photographer in this section whose work stands higher in every particular than Kirk's?

None.

Sittings can be arranged for any time this week and the portraits will be in your hands at the earliest possible moment, always remembering there will be no undue haste and slipshod work.

In the Criminal Court.

Yesterday, in the criminal court, Judge Hugus, the following business was transacted:

State vs. Thomas Gatrell; demurrer overruled and case set for trial March 30.

William Neuman's bond was declared forfeited, and the parties were called.

City of Wheeling vs. Wilhelm; set for March 30.

The Golden Eagle Fair.

The Pythian castle has been secured for the week/and will be handsomely decorated in gay colors and bunting. After 10 o'clock each evening the floor will be cleared and dancing will be the feature.

I've Been Looking All Over Town

And here I am again to get that Suit. It is a very common matter for us to hear this from customers almost daily, but it is only natural because these nobby outfits we are now offering for both men and boys are of that class of goods that please both the eye and pocketbook. Every one we are showing this spring are far ahead of anything we have heretofore shown, both in style, fit and fabrics, and at prices, well they have been clipped and pared till there's but a trifle left above the cost of material, and it is absolutely natural attraction which brings people to our store again and again.

This is Children's week in our Boys' and children's departments. Hundreds of new novelties offered last week now ready for the boys. Of course, your money back if you say so.
